The Butter Pair.

We looked in at Tappan Hall, on Wednesday hat, and our eyes were greated with the largest and finest display of Table Butter that we have everseen. The fair was a complete success. There were over 500 rolls of superb butter, varying in size from one to ten pounds, a large proportion elaborately ornamented, on exhibition, and the hall was well filled with competitors for premiumand spectators.

The original committee, consisting princi pally of our merchants, declined serving, and a new Committee was selected from the audience, by a vote of the exhibitors, as follows: Mrs. Houston Sisler, Mrs. B. F. Wheeler, Mrs. A. H. Eldred and Mesurs. J. W. Shook, Hiram Viele and F. Schumaker The Committee, after carefully and patient y examining each and every lot, awarded he premiums as follows: First premium the premiums as follows: First premium—a splendid set of white Ironstone China dishes, 30 pieces, worth $15,00 to a Mr. Caldwell of Fredericksburgh, Wayne County, entered by A. 35.00, to Urian Ebbert of Norton.

The entire lot of butter, weighing in the aggregate, 1920 pounds, was, at the close of the exhibition, purchased for cash, by the getters up of the Fair, Messra. John C. Bexter & Co., at 14 cents per pound.

The exhibition elicited general commendation from the many citizens who dropped in during the day, though as a matter of course, many were disappointed at not getting one or the other of the premiums, for the really primo lots of butter presented by We regard such fairs, however, notwith

Rend, oh! rend, attentively,
While I the cames relate;
We have an old Bachelor
To guide the Ship of State,
That was a guest oversight
When he was nomitated,
And is, no doubt, the came of all
The evils daily stated.

Think you that a Bachelor, Who has not yet found out The way to rule a family, And show a wife about, Gan aver guide in safety our glorious Ship of Stata 7 101. No man can ever do it Without a beiging mate.

Talk about your Cabines,
And Counsellors so rare,
There's no cabinet like a loving wife,
Who can clean the cabinet ware.
Then take my word for what I say—
It me'er, included, was meant
Tout we should have a bachalor
For our President.

If Suck had now a charming wife,
One full of love and devotion,
We should not have this civil strife
And political commoston.
